ABOUT THE LIBRARY

It's been a full year and as 2019 comes to a close, we have one more announcement that we are excited about sharing with you.

The Rossford Library is now an app! We've worked to make utilizing your account online much easier. Android and Apple users can find and download the "SEO Libraries App" from the Google play or App Store. The Rossford Library will show as a customized icon once the patron enters their Rossford library card number and PIN.

The app can be used to request books and videos, utilize the digital library and other sites like HOOPLA, and it can even show what libraries have a book based on a scanned ISBN code. Visit the library for more

Staff Spotlight On: New Circulation Clerk Dana Matthews

In this issue, we highlight our new part-time circulation clerk Dana Matthews. Dana is a married and is the mother of two little girls. She and her family have been regular visitors to the library and she tells us that she feels honored to now be an employee. Dana previously worked in retail and she currently also works part time as a nanny.

Dana started at the library in late October. She is a huge football fan, and in particular she roots for the Ohio State Buckeyes. It would be no surprise then, that she tells us that fall is her favorite season. We hope you take a minute to say hello and welcome Dana to our staff and if you're so inclined, we are sure she would enthusiastically respond to "Go Bucks!"

A new face at the circulation desk! Meet Dana Matthews!

Characters Come to Life During Halloween Storytimes

Halloween themed stories brought out all sorts of costumed characters last month. 1-2-3 Read! and Story Time groups were invited to wear their costumes to the library. Librarian Lauren Kuhr also participated in the Owens pre-school trunk or treat event distributing candy to the day care groups she reads to each month.
